

Certification Date
August 19, 2010

Warp 9 Computers

InfoSafe Certified Business

652 Spring Street | Allen TX, 75002

This business has completed all the requirements to be InfoSafe Certified by INVISUS, LLC. The company has implemented and maintains the minimum recommended Administrative and Technical Safeguards to stay compliant with all major federal and state laws as well as industry regulations for customer information security.

Reviewed by:

Rolland Thomas

Certified InfoSafe
Account Manager

Being InfoSafe Certified signifies this company's genuine commitment to protecting customer and employee personal information against unauthorized access, identity theft and cyber-crime. With its dedication to privacy, safety and trust, this business cares about its customers and is a leader in the community by being responsible with personal and private information.

INVISUS, LLC is the leading information privacy and security compliance certification service for small businesses and organizations. © Copyright 2010. All rights reserved.

